- You purchased through a third-party vendor.
- The subscription hasn't yet synced with your AVG account.

Refunds After Cancellation

Canceling doesn't automatically guarantee a refund. However, if you're within the 30-day money-back guarantee, you may qualify for one.

Refund Eligibility Rules:

- You must cancel within the eligible refund period (usually 30 days from the original purchase). 📞 1 (866) 571-9373
- The refund will deactivate your paid protection immediately.
- Refunds for app-store purchases are handled by Google Play or Apple, not AVG directly. 📞 1 (866) 571-9373

To request a refund:

1. Visit AVG's official Refund Request Form page.
2. Enter your order number and registered email.
3. Submit the form and wait for a confirmation email. ☎ 1 (866) 571-9373

Keep Your Device Protected After Cancelling

If you decide to cancel, ensure your computer stays protected. AVG recommends switching to the AVG Free Antivirus version instead of running unprotected.

You can download it directly from the official AVG site. This ensures your data and system remain safe without active billing. ☎ 1 (866) 571-9373

Common Mistakes to Avoid When Canceling

1.  Assuming uninstalling = cancellation.
Removing the app from your device doesn't stop billing. You must cancel online.
2.  Waiting until the renewal date.
Always cancel at least 3 days before the next charge to avoid automatic renewal. ☎ 1 (866) 571-9373
3.  Forgetting to check the confirmation email.
Ensure you get a confirmation message verifying the subscription was canceled.
