Why Understanding Refunds Matters

When you purchase a subscription for AVG, automatic renewal is often enabled. To ensure you're not unexpectedly charged, it's crucial to know your refund rights. AVG's official policy offers a 30-day money-back guarantee for eligible subscriptions purchased through certain channels. 📞 1-866-571-9373

By understanding these rules, you keep control of your billing and avoid unwanted renewal charges. 📞 1-866-571-9373

Eligibility for a Refund

Here's how to check if your subscription qualifies:

- If you bought directly via AVG's website or through a "via-product" offer, you are typically eligible for a full refund within 30 days of the purchase.
- If you bought via the Google Play Store, a similar 30-day window applies for many products. 📞 1-866-571-9373
- If you purchased through a third-party reseller, physical store, or the Apple App Store, refund eligibility is more restricted—such purchases may require you to contact the seller or adhere to the store's policy.
- Subscriptions older than 30 days from initial purchase generally do not qualify for a full refund under AVG's standard guarantee. 📞 1-866-571-9373

Knowing these eligibility criteria helps you determine whether to submit a refund request or simply cancel renewal for future periods.

- If approved, funds are refunded via the original payment method—expect 7–14 business days depending on method.
- You may immediately lose access to paid features if refund is approved; your plan may switch to the free version. ☎ 1-866-571-9373
- You’ll get an email confirmation once your refund is processed.
- If denied, you can still cancel renewal to avoid further charges.
