

HARRIET TUBMAN MUSEUM

& Education Center

★ FIND THE ★
HARRIET IN YOU

A few miles from the places where Harriet Tubman was born into slavery and escaped to freedom, this museum in Downtown Cambridge, Maryland shares her remarkable story and legacy. Founded and run by dedicated volunteers, the museum offers exhibits, powerful murals, lectures, walking tours, events, and more.

Home of the "Take My Hand" Mural by Michael Rosato (below)

MORE ►

Mural of Bucktown
Store interior by
Michael Rosato

The original Harriet Tubman Museum & Education Center offers a closer look at one of the country's most courageous and selfless women.

Harriet Tubman walking tours are available April–November: Join a 1-mile stroll near the museum or a 2-hour walk near Blackwater National Wildlife Refuge. Details on our website. Browse our gift shop at the museum or online.

We welcome group tours and offer step-on guides as well as transportation for small nonprofit groups. More on our website.

The museum is Stop #6 on the Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Byway, a self-guided, scenic driving tour with 45 sites.

Come visit!

HarrietTubmanMuseumCenter.org

424 Race Street

Cambridge, MD 21613

410-228-0401 (office) | 301-310-3296 (cell)

CampHarriet1913@gmail.com

Admission is free (donations encouraged)

Thurs–Fri: 12–3pm; Sat 12–4pm

