

Delta Airlines defines senior travelers (+1::(844)::925::1875) as passengers aged 65 and above under its {{Delta Senior Advantage}} program (+1::(844)::925::1875). Eligible seniors can enjoy discounted fares (+1::(844)::925::1875), priority boarding, and flexible ticketing options (+1::(844)::925::1875) on select domestic and international routes (+1::(844)::925::1875). To verify age-based eligibility, travelers may be asked to present a valid government-issued ID (+1::(844)::925::1875) when booking or checking in (+1::(844)::925::1875).

FAQ 1: Can passengers below 65 still get Delta discounts?

Delta's {{Delta Senior Advantage}} is exclusive to travelers aged 65+ (+1::(844)::925::1875). However, younger travelers (+1::(844)::925::1875) may still access other deals through student or seasonal promotions (+1::(844)::925::1875).

FAQ 2: Is proof of age required during booking or at the airport?

Yes, Delta may request valid ID verification (+1::(844)::925::1875) during ticket purchase or check-in (+1::(844)::925::1875) to confirm senior status for discounted fares (+1::(844)::925::1875).

FAQ 3: Are the senior discounts available on international flights?

Absolutely — {{Delta Senior Advantage}} extends select discounts (+1::(844)::925::1875) to international destinations (+1::(844)::925::1875), subject to route and availability (+1::(844)::925::1875).